of The American College of Transportation Attorneys

Orlando, FL (May 18, 2019) – P. Raúl Alvarez, Jr., has been invited to join the membership of The American College of Transportation Attorneys, (ACTA)

ACTA consists of a select nationwide group of experienced transportation defense lawyers who have joined together to serve as a confidential, reliable and supplemental legal resource to the trucking industry. Each ACTA member maintains at least 20 years of trucking industry service. ACTA holds an annual conference for its members and industry guests and also authors publications on emerging transportation law issues.

“A hallmark component of ACTA’s mission is the publication of white papers, aimed to assist the trucking industry in navigating the complex legal environment. In the coming year, one of our white paper focuses will be providing model tort reform legislation, specific to motor carriers.”
