FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Alvarez, Winthrop, Thompson & Storey P.A. is Pleased to Announce that Nicole W. Giuliano has Joined the Firm as Senior Counsel in the Orlando Office

Orlando, FL (September, 2018) – AWTSPA is pleased to announce that Nicole W. Giuliano has joined the firm as Senior Counsel at the Orlando office. Her practice is focused on commercial and real-estate litigation, as well as creditors' rights and alternative dispute resolution.

Nicole graduated from the University of Miami School of Law magna cum laude in 2009. While at UM, she was a member of the University of Miami Law Review, the Moot Court Board, and President of the American Constitution Society.

As an attorney, Nicole started her career working for a non-profit organization in South Florida. She represented tenants and homeowners in subsidized housing disputes, evictions, foreclosures, and bankruptcies. Thereafter she joined a large law firm with offices throughout the country focusing primarily on community association disputes (condos/HOAs). Later she founded her own firm where she focused on real estate and commercial litigation, collections, and consumer disputes. She has represented parties on all sides during the foreclosure crisis and has represented both debtors and creditors in the bankruptcy courts. Nicole also has experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in consumer and class action claims, including claims under the Florida Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act, the Fair Housing Act, and the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

Nicole is also a Florida Supreme Court certified mediator (County and Circuit) and a qualified arbitrator. She brings her variety of litigation experience to the table as a hardworking mediator dedicated to finding solutions and getting business running again.
